Culture Connection Arizona is partnering with The Literacy Center and Northern Arizona University's Center for International Education on the annual event to connect international newcomers with local community members.

It will be held Friday, Sept. 20 from 4 to 7 p.m. at the Historic Ice House (201 E. Birch Ave.) downtown and will feature games, food and live music from The Pocket Limes. The announcement said that locals are encouraged to attend to welcome newcomers from a variety of countries.

Admission is free, though the announcement noted that donations to support Culture Connection AZ's work are "always welcome." Free parking will be available at the Coconino County Administration Building (219 E. Cherry St).
