Local artist Eric Kruse will be presenting a new art exhibit called "Places of Flagstaff" on April 6.

Kruse creates wood carvings, with a past exhibit, Faces of Flagstaff, representing notable people in the city. The exhibit features Kruse's latest work, alongside work from mixed-media artist Ruth Austin and jeweler Ryanne Seberry.

music from Beth Pickens, food from Satchmo's/Roux 66, and remarks from local business partners.

Culture Connection AZ's announcement of the event called the exhibit a "celebration of the diverse and cherished businesses that define [Flagstaff]."

"The 'Places of Flagstaff' event promises an unforgettable afternoon that will ignite your senses and foster a vibrant sense of community spirit," it said.

The exhibit will be in the Historic Ice House from 2 to 5 p.m. on April 6. Admission is free, though a $10 donation to Culture Connection AZ is suggested.
